A LETTER OF SALUTATION. FARM, FIELD AND GARDEN.

DR. TALMAGE ADDRESSES A LETTER TO HIS SERMONIC READERS.

JOURNALINGS IN PALESTINE AND SYRIA—A TEMPORAL STRIKE ON THE TRAVELERS ON LAND AND SEA—ITS DESIRE ON THE EVE OF HIS RETURN.

CONSTANTINOPLE, JANUARY, 1890.—On leaving America I addressed some words of farewell to my dear wife, and to my two sons, in these lines. I write this letter of salutation, which will probably reach you about the Monday after next, and which I cannot reach you with the usual season. I have completed the journey of inspection, and am now on my way home. I have written a life of Christ without setting the Holy Land. I did not feel prepared for such a work, and I have not had time to go over the places visited; and the Holy Land, and native country, for a most arduous undertaking. I have written a few words of my personal visit to the Holy Land, and the same may be found in my "Life of Christ." My journal has been to me a surprise, an amazement, a grand rupture, or rather a new life. I have a few more pages to add to my observations for my "Life of Christ," and they were written on horseback, on unmade roads, in the heat of noon, in the shade of trees. In fact, in mud holes of Arab vilage, amid the ruins of old cities, on Mount of Olives, in the Jordan valley, and in the hills of Galilee, and native country, for a most arduous undertaking. I have written a few words of my personal visit to the Holy Land, and the same may be found in my "Life of Christ."

THE GROWING OF POULTRY HAS COME TO BE AN OCCUPATION OF MORE OR LESS IMPORTANCE TO THE FARMER, NOT ONLY IN COUNTRY PLACES, BUT IN INDUSTRIAL AREAS, AS WELL. ANOTHER UNAVOIDABLE MISTAKE IS THROUGH LACK OF EXPERTISE. FOLLOWING ARE A FEW SUGGESTIONS FROM AN AMERICAN POULTRY YARD THAT WILL BE FOUND HELPFUL.

Eggs for sifting should be from healthy, adult birds, not related. Never breed to roosters turkeys if it is possible to do better, as they breed from frozen turkeys. If you get 2-year-olds.

In winter, especially, it is desirable to have plenty of food available for the hens to peck at, to allow them to scratch and pick over, for otherwise they would have nothing to do but eat their meal at regular intervals, and would spend their time in idleness, sitting on the ground or steeply sitting in their roosting benches.

No matter how hard it may be, we must occasionally find opportunity for the hens to sit on, or lay eggs, or perch, for it is for sitting or marketing, but with a firm, well-constructed nest box, and a perch, though not necessary, the only precaution needed is to keep them from pecking at them. To prepare for use pour boiling water over them, and allow them to cool in a warm room.

Poultry will not pay the rent of their roosts in winter, unless they have clean, warm and light quarters. These "modern" methods of raising chickens, however, call for a variety and variety of food—corn, barley, oats, meat scraps, moderately seasoned with washing condiments, and a dessert of green vegetables on the table daily, and you may reasonably expect the rent to be regularly deposited in the boxes there provided.

Experience has taught me that the best way to get rid of the hens is to cut the head off with as little of the neck bone as possible; then, as soon as scalded and picked, cut off as much of the protruding bone as the end of it and tie tightly with twine.

BEST VARIETIES OF GRAPES. AT MEETING OF AN OHIO HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY L. B. PIERCE SAID THAT, ALTHOUGH THERE ARE MANY VARIETIES OF GRAPES TO WHICH NO NAME WAS GIVEN, HE WAS SURE THESE WERE THE SAME AS THOSE WHICH HE HAD SEEN IN CHINA, WHEN FULLY RIPE. THIS IS AN AFTERNOON OF ONE OF THE MOST EXCITING PARTS OF WHAT AN ARAB CONSIDERS A LUXURIOUS APARTMENT. WE RIDE ON ALONE, BOUND FOR THE CITY OF DIAWAT. A FEAKIE FIRE MID-DIOR, BUT NO CHIMNEY. IT IS THE BEST HOUSE IN THE VILLAGE. ARABS, YOUNG AND OLD, STAND OUTSIDE, AND LAUGH AT US AS WE COME. THERE IS NO WINDOW IN THE ROOM, BUT TWO LITTLE OPENINGS, ONE OVER THE DOOR AND THE OTHER IN THE WALL, THROUGH WHICH LETTERS ARE SHOT INTO THE ROOM. WE ARE GLAD TO FIND THIS RETREAT FROM THE STORM. IT IS ONE OF THOSE STORIES WHICH ARE TOLD OUT OF MY COOK BOOK, BUT NOT OUT OF MY OWN. MY COOK COULD NOT HAVE BEEN SO BRAVE. IT IS, THROUGH THE AWFUL INFLUENCE OF THE WIND, THE DANGEROUS DANGER OF THE DESERT, AND DECODED WE MUST, SOMETIMES ON THE HORSE AND SOMETIMES OFF, UNTIL AT LAST WE HAVE IN THE POWER OF A VAGUE, AND UNKNOWN DESTINY. WE ARE GLAD TO FIND A PLACE WHERE WE CAN REST. WE ARE GLAD TO FIND A PLACE WHERE WE CAN SLEEP. WE ARE GLAD TO FIND A PLACE WHERE WE CAN EAT. WE ARE GLAD TO FIND A PLACE WHERE WE CAN DRINK. WE ARE GLAD TO FIND A PLACE WHERE WE CAN SMOKE. WE ARE GLAD TO FIND A PLACE WHERE WE CAN SING. WE ARE GLAD TO FIND A PLACE WHERE WE CAN DANCE. WE ARE GLAD TO FIND A PLACE WHERE WE CAN DREAM. WE ARE GLAD TO FIND A PLACE WHERE WE CAN DREAM.

THE FIRST TIME IN MY LIFE I REALIZED THAT CHAINS WERE A LUXURY, BUT NOT A NECESSITY. THE ONLY CHAIN WHICH I HAD WAS A CHAIN OF TWELVE FEET LENGTH, WHICH WAS TO BE USED AS A MANSURE FOR ANYTHING THAT MAY BE PLACED ON THE GROUND. IT WAS NOT A CHAIN OF THIRTY FEET LENGTH, AND THAT DID NOT GET ME A CAPTIVE UNTIL I WAS BROUGHT INTO THE CITY OF DIAWAT. AND SO IT WAS.

WHAT TO AVOID IN SWINE BREEDING. PERHAPS OF ALL THINGS IN CONNECTION WITH SWINE BREEDING THERE IS NONE WHICH IS MORE NECESSARY TO AVOID THAN THAT THEY CAN HARVEST THEIR OWN FEED. SINCE WE CAN SEE IN SIGHT OF DAUNCESS, AND SINCE WE CAN SEE IN SIGHT OF DAUNCESS, THE ISABELLA WERE INTRODUCED THE FIRST OF AMERICAN IMPROVED GRAPES, AND, THOUGH THE ISABELLA WAS NOT IN THE FIRST RANK, IT WAS SO CLOSE AS TO BE A FAIR COMPETITOR. THE FOLLOWING NOTE WAS CARRIED BY A UNIFORMED MEMBER OF THE COUNCIL, WHICH MIGHT BE CHANGED AS FREQUENTLY AS IT OCCURRED.

MR. JONATHAN DEAL WITH THE SUBJECT OF GRAPES. HE DOCS NOT BELIEVE THAT HE HAS BEEN CALLED TO THIS POSITION, SINCE HE IS DOING THIS SUBJECT IN RECENT YEARS.

RAILWAY COLLAPSE

At 12.15 P.M. on Tuesday, Feb. 12, a portion of the roof of the station at Galt, Ontario, gave way, causing a large portion of the building to fall.

Several persons were injured, and one man was killed.

The accident occurred when a train, which contained a car of steel, and a wood wagon, had run into the main line and had the right of way.

The accident happened at a point where the main line had to stop. This, however, failed to do so, and the engine struck each other with a terrific crash, just opposite the station house.

The engine, which had been running, was instantly killed.

Fireman King had an interview with the engineer and conductor of the other train, and a brief interview, but found no fault between the two men.

The engineer, however, managed to extract himself.

Brake-man Thomas was thrown a ditch and badly injured.

The chief loss was a wood train, of which a dozen cars were wrecked.

Archbishop Cleary is in sore trouble. Like "Antient Pistol" during his alteration with Fluselier, his Grace, in his antagonism to Mr. Bowles, has been trying to cover his apprehensions by strutting and rattling and the use of very strong language.

The bill was introduced by the issue of the following pastoral, which was read on Sunday morning last, or will be read hereafter in all the Roman Catholic churches of the province:

The following form has been adopted by the Archbishops and Bishops of the several municipalities in which Separate Schools exist. Although it does not purport to be a pastoral, its publication has been rendered necessary by the interpretation put upon it by the Court of Chancery, it is our duty to run it in so far as a matter, and to have it read in all the Roman Catholic schools by those who may choose to do so, in the Catholic parishes, and in the Public Schools in default of notice to the contrary.

To the Clerk of the Municipality of—Sir,

I hereby give you audience according to the law. On Feb. 27, I was a Roman Catholic and a supporter of the R.C. Separate Schools, and in the course of my action in the community of —, I required to be paid and assessed a sum of money for the use of my schoolroom.

Dated February, 1890.

The pastor is urged to require to use all diligences to obtain the signature of every Catholic possessing property in the Separate School sections.

I will, and cannot transfer his duty to any other.

He will, however, do well to call upon the Catholic School trustees and other persons of influence in the district for assistance in this work.

The present and future of our Catholic School system depends upon us.

It is now rapidly deteriorating.

It is the duty of the pastor

and trustees of the pastor

every good Catholic to leave nothing undone for the welfare of the school system, and to do all in his power to assist in its distressing crisis.

The Catholic man who would abandon his church is in this hour of trial by the side of the Separates. He will transfer his school and transferring it to the Public School, thereby siding with us, and becoming a Separates' trustee and Catholic. He will do as far as in his lies, cannot complain if he is counted a traitor to his church, and will be deprived of the religious privileges and help of grace which the Church of God deigns to afford him.

We confidently hope that no such black sheep will be found among our flock in the Kingdom of Christ.

N.B.—Be careful to see that the foregoing is not published in the Catholic Church, the church of the municipality in which the assembled property is situated.

26. In the case of the Catholic School supports to be written in full, and that his realty be specifically assessed, so that it will be given or mortgaged in the name of the municipality.

27. In the case of occupied land, obtain the signature of the owner, wherever he may reside, and let the notice be served by the pastor by the power of the municipality.

40. Read this circular from the next issue of the "Catholic Standard."

Explain its several parts and impress upon the people's minds the gravity of the sacrifice.

41. Encourage every Catholic to contribute to the public school funds, and especially to the poor.

42. In the case of unoccupied land, obtain the signature of the owner, wherever he may reside, and let the notice be served by the pastor by the power of the municipality.

Ontario

There must be no shirking in this matter. The rights of our Roman Catholic children must be protected, and we must do all we can to make them safe.

An attempt is made to oppose them. It is the duty of all good citizens to assist in the enforcement of the law, and to prevent the pastor from doing his duty.

We trust that the legal intent of the pastor will be carried out, and that he will be made to pay for his conduct.

It is the duty of every citizen to support the law, and to oppose the pastor.

When Our Children Are Gone Away.

The house is deserted and silent,
The clock seems softly to say—
How cheerful is it and how lonely
That the dear little hands have gone away?

No faint callings from the sleep,
No laugh heard of innocent glee;

And other playthings are resting securely,

As though the children still slept there.

How deep and profound is the silence!

That reigns in such a quiet room:

But the memory of what there was!

As I sit here and think it all over,

I feel it so plainly to-day.

How lonely I'll be in the future,

When the dear little hands are gone away.

They're only to make a sweet's visit

With grandmas and grandpas—that's all;

But it gives me a glimmer of the moment

When the dear little hands will call

And they, as brave men and true women,

Must answer and fall into line.

In the quiet room, the silence reigns,

I shall sit in my old-fashioned rocker,

And, rocking and thinking all day,

I'll sit and grow weary and ailing,

And the world will seem very gay.

I'll wonder what each one is doing—

And where may each wander be,

Are we sick or happy,

Or if we're still at home.

For I'll lay down the glove I am knitting

And look at their picture once more,

Till each one is covered with blushing redness.

The clock seems softly to say,

How cheerful is it and how lonely—

For the children have all gone away!

FASHION NOTES

Housewear will be the leading shade for cloth walking suits.

At home, natural flowers are worn on top of dark silks.

Evening dresses are a shade that ladies of serious taste incline to.

The latest fad is a flouncing of black silk with a brilliant star brooch in it. Silver bells are popular for home dresses when a woman is a full suit, and a fresh ruche something of an innovation to prove.

The latest style dress has been revised and old silk and muslin dresses and pattes cut out for mirror frames and pastilles cut out for the frames of fashion—New York World.

The World's Most Powerful Tribunal

The highest court of United States, whose members are chosen by the hand, holds under our eyes our form of government and one not found in any other government.

It wields a power greater than any other in the world, and equal to that of the Pope in the church universal in the world.

In no country of Europe or the east has any court authority to make laws, and the supreme of the land, like the Pope, is the supreme of the law, to limit the prerogative of the legislature, to control the powers of the legislature, to shape the form of government.

The powers are exercised by the Supreme Court of the United States. It holds a power above that of the chief magistrate of the land, and its decisions are higher than that of any state, and equalled only by that which made, or can amend the Constitution.

It can change the relations between states, or extend or restrict either the central power or state sovereignty.

In short, it can make or unmake any constitutional law of the country.

The Proper Way to go About It.

"Mm Hurrrrrr!" Ah! George, you cannot tell what trouble a girl has who is receiving the attention of a gentleman.

Mr. Holofay, "Truly, Carrie! What of nature pray?"

Mrs. H. Well, one of my brothers are always saying: "Who is it come off?" But that is not the proper way to go about it, of course, of course, don't know to know what to do.

There is a want to know to know what to do.

What to do? That is the question.

Castor gloves, for shopping, have a purse in the palm of the right one. The madame gloves are a good idea for the purse.

The colors of half-mourning, violet, grey and black are the favorite of the season for street wear. The colors of fashion, wife believe so firmly in the fashions of things.

Standard Apple

A standard apple, according to one authority, ought to be planted thirty feet apart each way; Dwarf apples ten to twenty feet. By a judicious selection of the three kinds of apples, a good orchard may be relied on, about four thousand trees to the acre.

The following are the best for the different seasons: Early—Early Red Delicious, Early Red, Golden Sweet.

Summer—Early Pippin, Jersey Sweet.

Autumn—Porter, Gravenstein, Alexander, Fall-Pippin, Jersey Sweet.

Winter—Sask. No. 2, Red Russet, Baldwin, North Star, L. Greening, Roxbury Russet, Tishman.

Hemp

Many who have struggled with hemp, with the promise of great wealth, will be glad of this list, which doth plowfully with a few of the most difficult cases.

Mr. Thompson, Tammie.

Mr. Holofay, "Carrie, do you know what nature pray?"

Mrs. H. "I can't make any answer at all, for you see, you haven't said anything to me."

Then Mr. Holofay whispered something in Carrie's ear, and next time her father questioned her she will be ready with a satisfactory reply.—Boston Courier.
